You know those Neighbor Tease I just can't get enough of? Well, Julia DiNardo is the mastermind behind the hood-tastic tease and much more. Editor of Fashion Pulse Daily, freelance writer and designer, this Steel City gal is livin' the NYC fashion dream. Accessible to runway shoes, sample sales and designer stores, Julia a fashionista I definitely aspire to be one day.

She hope's Fashion Pulse Daily will be seen as an authority of fashion and hopes to use the site as a platform to work with and encourage students with a strong fashion interest to be entrepreneurs and gain experience in the industry via mentorship and internship programs, specifically targeted toward college-aged and high-school students in Pittsburgh.
